

PUBLIC DAILY LEDGER

THIRD YEAR. MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1894. ONE CENT.

Miss Hattie Wood is visiting friends at Covington. Mrs. Joe D. Wood is visiting Dr. Spurr of Lexington. Dr. C. Kackley and Captain J. H. Myers are in Flemingsburg.

The leaves are turning gold! Please shut the door; that North wind makes me shiver! The world is dressed in golden manifold. (They say they had a big rat near the river.)

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-Four Hours. THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS. With breeze—fair. Blue—fair or show. White clouds—will warm up. If blue's herald—golden will be. Unless blue's shown—no change will be.

Mr. Henry Bots, an old and esteemed citizen near Aberdeen, is very ill.

The Frankfort Capital, speaking by authority, says Governor Brown is a candidate for United States Senator.

The Kentucky Presbyterian Synod, which has been in session at Paducah this week, will meet next year in Maysville.

Colonel John Blanchard of the Fifth Ward has an apple tree that is now laden with its second crop of fruit. Who can beat this?

Colonel W. LaRue Thomas, R. P. Jenkins, J. D. Dye, John T. Martin and A. H. Thompson will leave tomorrow afternoon for Louisville, to attend the meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge.

Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Davis of Maysville will be "at home" to their friends on Wednesday, October 17th, from 3 to 5 P. M. being their fifth anniversary. The Lenoix club in advance extends its best wishes to the general Doctor and his accomplished wife.

The Young Regulars will play the Washingtons this afternoon. Captain Fanner says he will have out his strongest team which is equal to the League club. The feature of the game will be S. Willett behind the bat and Captain Fanner in the box.

The count of the registration in Louisville has been completed. The total is 40,882, which exceeds last year's registration by 5,821. The Republican shows a gain of 4,429 and the Democrat a gain of 232. This leaves the Democrat a majority of 9,616 in the city as against 14,738 last year.

Miss Hannah O'Hare, one of the teachers at St. Patrick's Parochial School, gave an entertainment last night in the parlors of the church for the benefit of her scholars. Cakes and ice were served, and the little ones thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

The Epworth League social at the residence of Miss Bertha Ott last evening was a very enjoyable affair. The young people would like one of these entertainments every night, being as they are of such a nature as to insure a good time to all who attend.

"They come high, but we must have them," says Manager Kineman in speaking of the special engagement of "Our Uncle Dudley" company at the Washington Opera house. "I heard of their being in this part of the country and although they rarely come to a town of this size, they have made an exception in this case and will be here next Wednesday evening, October 17th, with the original New York company, presenting the famous comedy just as it was seen in the larger cities last season, under the head of "Charlie's Uncle." The cast comprises some of the artists who have been seen here with some of our leading attractions.

Masonic Notice. The members of Aecia Lodge No. 24, F. and A. M., are hereby notified to assemble at their usual place of meeting to make arrangements for the funeral of Brother Mat. Simpson, who died last night at 10 o'clock at his home in Washington. J. R. SPURGEON, W. M. J. H. JOHNSON, Secretary.

THE "YOUNG" GIRLS. They Are Very Kindly Donated Winter Quarters.

May Lloyd and Mary Wilson, the two "young" girls who were arrested in Cincinnati Wednesday for loitering, and who claimed Maysville as their home, were given a hearing before Police Judge Gregg yesterday and given winter quarters in the handsome workhouse of that city—$25 and thirty days.

The authorities have the thanks of the citizens of this city of disposing of two such characters, as they were not residents of this city, only visitors.

DESTRUCTIVE FLAMES. The Big Lumber Plant at Parks Ferry Totally Destroyed.

MYERS, Ky., October 10th, 1894. Special to The Public Ledger. The large sawmill and planer of the Washington Manufacturing and Mining Company at Parks Ferry, near here, were totally destroyed by fire this morning between 4 and 5 o'clock.

The office building, containing all the stock of cash, doors, blinds, etc., also several thousand feet each of rough and dressed lumber in the yard, together with two dwelling houses belonging to the company, were totally destroyed.

Total loss estimated at $25,000 to $30,000. Insurance on mill $8,000, and some insurance on lumber.

Origin of fire unknown as there was no fire in the furnace or about the mill. The managers say they will rebuild.

This morning, while two little boys in a spring wagon were trying to drive over the stretcher track around the express wagon, which was backed in at the office, a blind horse, attached to a cart and driven by a gentleman of this city, ran into the front wheel of the spring wagon, completely stripping the horse of its harness and breaking the wagon in several places.

One Democrat Who Is Tired of the Party Methods. A special from Castlesburg to The Courier-Journal confirms the report printed some days ago in The Leader.

At a called meeting of the Carlisle Democratic Club, held Thursday night, Thomas D. Marcum, Editor of The Kentucky Democrat, was expelled from membership in the Club.

Marcum is sore at the Democratic party because he did not get the nomination for County Attorney and his paper is now supporting the entire Republican county ticket.

Next. SLICK TRICK. Gaysville County Men Victimized by a Circus Ticket-Seller.

A Davville special to The Courier Journal says Chief of Police Arnold of Lancaster, accompanied by Steven Royston, who lives in the country, passed through there en route to Somerset to arrest one of the ticket-sellers of Harris's Circus, that exhibited there Thursday.

The circus man worked a smooth game on Royston, and got a neat sum of his hard-earned cash.

Royston, when he bought his ticket, took a $5 bill from a roll which contained several $10 bills.

The circus man asked Royston if he wouldn't like to have smaller bills for the ten.

Royston objected at first, but the showman insisted, and he at last consented, handing over the $70.

The showman then rapidly counted out thirteen $1 bills, going over the twice with his little song of "five, ten, fifteen, twenty," etc.

Then laying a $5 bill on top of the pile of ones, he handed them over to Royston.

Royston, without going through the stack of bills, rolled them up and put them on his inside pocket, but having only $18 instead of $70.

He did not discover the fraud until he got to his home in Gaysville county.

Five dollars reward is offered for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties breaking the Inland in the lobby of the Postoffice. THOMAS J. CHENOWETH, P. M.

SAVAGELY ATTACKED. A Greensburg County Physician Probably Fatally Injured. Ugh! Wildcat! While returning from a professional call at Kenton Furnace a few nights ago Dr. W. G. Stone, who resides at Lyan, was attacked by a large wildcat. The cat sprang upon the Doctor's horse and proceeded to attack the physician. Stone had a terrible fight with the animal, but finally succeeded in killing it with his pocket-knife, his only weapon. He is now in a serious condition and may yet die from wounds received from the enraged cat. The animal measured two feet seven inches, and is the first one seen in that county for some time.

THIS IS HOW. Why China and Japan Have Gone Gunning For Each Other. A prominent diplomat, for many years connected with the State Department, has received from Chang Yen Hoon, the ex-Chinese Minister to the United States, who is now the Senior member of the Board at Peking (Young Li Xamen), which corresponds to the Foreign Office in other countries, a letter, which gives an authorized and explicit statement of the Chinese version of the causes which brought about the present war between China and Japan.

According to this letter China sent 1,500 troops to suppress the rebellion in Korea. The rebels dispersed, but Japan, who had the meantime dispatched troops to Korea, refused to withdraw her troops, in violation of the treaty.

Japan afterwards, according to Chang Yen Hoon, refused to hearken to overtures of interest peace made first by Great Britain and afterward by the United States.

ROLLA ON THE "STUMP." Rolia Hart has spoken! And as a "stumper" he is a howling success. Rolia's effort at Plumville was a "corner," and at a great outcry and the risk of breaking the record the law THE LEDGER presents it below:

"Follow Democrats: In promulgating esoteric cogitations or articulating superficial sentimentalities and philosophical or psychological observations, beware of platitudinous ponderosity.

"Let your statements possess a clarified conciseness, compacted comprehensibility, as, cohesiveness and a concentrated cogency.

"Eschew all conglomerations of fatulent garrulity, jejune babblement and assinine affectations.

"In trying to impress upon others the superiority of the inducements, and why you and so many others should plant your feet under the Democratic dangle, my thoughts inevitably cast a penumbra about the preloquacious fruition of correlative correspondences.

"Let your extemporaneous descantings have concise intelligibility and veracious vivacity, without rhodomontade or thirsonian bombast.

"Redulously avoid all polysyllabic profundity, patastuous vacuity, ventriloquial verbosity and vandiloquous vapidity; shun double entendres, purulent jocosity and pestiferous profanity, obscure or equivocal.

"At this stage of the proceedings Rolia's suspender button gave away—and so did the audience.

"[The charge in this case is only 10 cents a line, although many of the types are damaged beyond possible repair.]

THE MILLIONAIRES OF NEW YORK AND THE INCOME TAX. There are $5,000,000,000 Accumulated—Wealthy Men Must Pay the Tax. There are more millionaires in New York City and Brooklyn than in all the rest of the United States, and these gentlemen will pay about one-tenth of the whole income tax. The experts at Washington, who are now studying the law, differ as to the exact amount which the tax will yield, but the general opinion is that the Government will receive something like $30,000,000 per year from the income tax. This will relieve the general public from paying taxes to just that extent.

New York City and Brooklyn will contribute a large part of that amount. The multi-millionaires of New York City alone will, it is estimated, if the money all collected, pay something like $2,000,000 per annum.

There are more than 1,000 ordinary millionaires in New York and Brooklyn by actual count.

New York has forty-eight persons each of whom is worth more than $100,000. Curiously enough, there are more people in New York worth $200,000,000 and over than there are worth between $100,000 and $200,000. There are nine citizens of New York each worth $50,000,000 and over, as well as two estates of the like amount.

Only two citizens of New York are supposed to be worth more than $100,000,000. These are John D. Rockefeller and W. W. Astor. But there are several others very close to the mark, and who, conservatively speaking, are worth more than $100,000,000. Russell Sage is one of these; Cornelius Vanderbilt is another, while William Rockefeller, W. K. Vanderbilt and J. J. Astor are represented in turn as being worth $100,000,000 each.

When the income-tax collector has done his work there will be more accurate figures on this point than there are at present. Thus far when this subject has been broached Russell Sage has claimed that he was a very poor man.

The fortunate people worth more than $100,000 will each pay over $1,000 per annum as income tax, being 2 per cent. upon their incomes. In this class are thirty-eight women. At the head of these stands Mrs. Hetty Green, with $40,000,000 to her credit, and the prospect of paying some $400,000 to the Government every year in case the collectors find her and her wealth. There is likewise a large proportion of women among the plain millionaires, many of whom are unknown outside a small circle of friends.

The total wealth of the people of New York and Brooklyn who are worth over a million reaches the enormous figure of over $1,900,000,000, and their total annual income is very close to $100,000,000 from invested capital. This leaves out of account the plain millionaires and many whose wealth is in excess of a million, but is of a fluctuating nature.

Are Good Enough for THE LEDGER!

Less than a month ago, says the American Economist, the barley growers of the United States and those who trade in barley received news from London that two cargoes of Russian barley had been sold at Odessa for shipment to New York. This, of course, is the direct result of the first step toward Free-trade and Democratic legislation for the benefit of foreign farmers.

Under the Tariff act of 1883 the duty upon foreign barley imported into this country was 21.50 per cent. ad valorem. This being insufficient to afford proper protection to the American farmer the duty was increased to 64.08 per cent. under the McKinley Tariff. How this increase benefited our farmers by lessening our imports of barley is shown in the following official figures:

IMPORTS OF BARLEY.

Year Ending	Bushels.	Value.
June 30th, 1884.	8,596,122	$5,992,144
1885.	9,989,507	6,522,092
1886.	10,197,115	7,177,887
1887.	10,355,594	6,173,308
1888.	10,981,441	8,078,028
1889.	11,398,414	7,238,588
1890.	11,832,545	6,920,849
1891.	5,073,783	3,232,563
1892.	8,146,328	1,099,040
1893.	1,970,729	211,605

It can here be seen that under the more proper protection afforded to the American farmer by the McKinley Tariff, our imports of barley have fallen off from over eleven million bushels in 1880 and again in 1880 to less than two million bushels in 1893. Where we paid an average of $4,750,000 a year from 1884 to 1890 to foreign farmers for foreign barley, we have paid less than $2,000,000 a year since the time of McKinley Protection, and less than one million dollars last year.

Comparing our imports of foreign barley for 1893 with those of 1888, the saving to American farmers was more than seven million dollars in this one year alone. It is evident that Protection on barley was a good thing for American farmers. The Free-trade party thought it was too good a thing and feared loss our farmers might get too rich, as rich as the Sugar Trust perhaps. It was therefore the policy of the Democratic Congress to grind the farmer down and keep him poor, so the duty on barley was reduced from the McKinley rate of 64.08 per cent. down to 30 per cent. ad valorem by the Gorman Bill. This is a reduction of 33.92 per cent., and it would have been more if the Wilson Bill had become law, because the Wilson Bill proposed a duty of only 25 per cent. ad valorem.

DEMOCRATIC orators try to create the impression that since the readjustment of the Tariff a complete resumption of prosperity has followed, and that business nearly equals the magnificent volume which characterized the workings of the McKinley Law before Democratic successes nationally bred uncertainty, but they do not mention that the country has been so long idle that stocks are most all consumed and the temporary resumption necessarily follows.

The fact that woolen mills are now working to their full capacity is used as an argument that the new Tariff causes prosperity, but Democrats do not state that these mills are working under the McKinley rates, the new schedule not going into effect until January 1st, and that the manufacturer has the temporary advantage of free wool.

"Factories are crowded with orders now," says Mr. THEODORE JUSTICE, the woolen man of Philadelphia, "but we are in no way better off than we were when foreign competition begins under the new bill after the first of next year."

LET 'EM FIGHT.

The United States Government Declines to Interfere.

Uncle Sam Invited to Join England, France, Germany and Russia in a Friendly Intervention in the China-Japan War.—The Declaration Based on the Time-honored Policy to Avoid Any Foreign Entanglements.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The United States has been invited by the quadruple alliance, Great Britain, France, Germany and Russia, to join it in a friendly intervention in the war between China and Japan. The invitation is couched in the choicest of diplomatic language. The horrors of the war are depicted in eloquent terms. The wisdom of stopping it is set forth in a very fetching manner, and the benefits to mankind and commerce to be obtained from a restoration of peace are clearly described.

The invitation has been declined. The declaration is based on the time-honored policy of the government to avoid any entangling alliance with foreign powers. Acknowledgment is made of the truth of what the invitation contains, but the government declines to take any part in the restoration of peace, etc. But in the polite language of diplomacy it is pointed out that this country has so far shied from any such attempt in its own business, and that so long as it continues to prosper by that policy it will not depart from it.

Pittsborough Won't Sign.
 PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—After receiving by mail a copy of the fighting articles from New York, Bob Pittsborough Friday declared he would not sign them in that shape. He objects to fighting for a championship belt put up by a sporting party, as he considers it not up for advertising purposes. He also to the size of the gloves, which should be five ounces, the same used by Corbett, Sullivan, Mitchell and himself, and to the naming the referee unless a clause be inserted that he shall be satisfactory to both parties. Fitz said: "I don't know anything about the Florida club, but I hear that Corbett's backers, the Dyers, are behind it, and as he had everything his own way so far, I think I should at least have a say as to who shall be the referee."

Foreign Missions Financially Embarrassed.
 MADISON, Wis., Oct. 13.—The American board of commissioners of foreign missions chiefly occupied Friday morning in discussing their embarrassing financial condition, but it was finally voted not to devote the Otis fund of $80,000 to a partial liquidation of the $116,000 debt of the board, but to use it as previously determined. By an enthusiastic rising vote it was also determined not to abandon a single mission now under control of the board, but to establish new ones as rapidly as circumstances would warrant. A resolution was adopted providing for the appointment of a special committee of three in each of the cities of Chicago, New York and Boston to obtain suggestions from every Congregational church in America.

"Captain Bob's" Fall.
 KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 13.—While walking on a cliff along the west bank of the Hudson, near Glasco, a Scotchman known as "Captain Bob" slipped and fell over the edge. He landed on the beach over a hundred feet below. His body was found there later, with the rising water nearly covering his face. The man was found to be alive, and he was taken to a house, where he soon regained consciousness. Though badly injured he may live. Had he not been rescued when he was he would soon have been drowned by the rising tide.

Value of Life Saving Service.
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—A dispatch from Point Aux Barques, at the mouth of Saginaw Bay, Mich., states that the schooner John Wesley, of Port Huron, with a cargo of lumber, became waterlogged ten miles from the life-saving station. The crew of seven men were saved in the life boat. The record made by the life saving service, during the recent storm is most creditable, there having been not a single loss of life where the wrecks took place within range of life saving stations. Total wrecks reported 13; lives saved, 76; lives lost, none. Nearly all of the rescues were effected at night.

Sugar Men Lose.
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Judge McComas, of the district supreme court, Friday, denied the application of the Miles Sugar Manufacturing Co., of Louisiana, for a mandamus to compel Secretary Carlisle to appoint inspectors to ascertain the sugar production of the company. The object of the suit, it is understood, was to test the legality of the recent repeal of the sugar bounty provision of the McKinley law and also to lay the foundation for appeal to congress for payment of bounty for the current year.

Bad Pension Doctors.
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Steps will be taken by the pension bureau to mete out punishment to the remaining members of the board of pension examiners involved in the Van Leuven frauds. Indictments against several of the board of physicians have already been returned by grand jury.

Sullivan's Farm.
 NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—A report comes from South Framingham, Mass., to the effect that John L. Sullivan, the champion pugilist, is negotiating for the lease of the well-known Davis farm in South Sherborn. He will establish a sanatorium.

The Big Fight.
 COLLEGEVILLE, Pa., Oct. 13.—Public sentiment in this city is not opposed to the holding of the Corbett-Pittsborough fight here. To begin with, there is no law to prevent the holding of a fight in Florida.

HIS POCKET PICKED.

Victor-Edward Howard, of the A. R. U. Robbed of Railway Passes.
 CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Victor-Edward G. Howard, of the A. R. U., who, next to President Debs, has been the most aggressive enemy the railroads have ever had, was robbed of a pocket-book containing about forty annual passes on the largest railroad systems in the country while taking a ride on an electric car, advertising an offering of reward for the return of his pocket book, and directing the thief to bring it to the A. R. U. headquarters in the Ashland building. The robbery was once before reported, the pickpocket getting over $100.

COUNT ZICHY Comes to This Country to Right a Wrong—He Will Marry the Mother of His Child.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The Hungarian colony in this city is deeply interested in a short announcement which appeared in the papers among the cable dispatches. It was in effect that a letter had been received at Buda-Pesth from Count Hermann Zichy, a cousin of the lower house of the Hungarian diet, who is now in New York, stating that he had emigrated to this country in order to start a new life.

The cablegram added, in explanation, that the count's family had renounced him because he had adopted the Unitarian faith in order to be able to marry the mother of his children, who was formerly a singer on the stage known as Allie Bayvers.

HIBERNIANS RECOGNIZED

By the Catholic Bishops in Secret Convocation at Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 13.—At the conference of the archbishops of the United States, held at the residence of Archbishop Ryan, it was, according to Archbishop Ryan, unanimously decided to recognize the Ancient Order of Hibernians as an admirable society.

President Patrick O'Keefe, of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, said that the formal recognition of the order was the one thing needed for the quadrupling of its membership. He said that the national directors would be called in session at once to acknowledge properly the action of the highest church dignitaries in the country at a meeting of all the Philadelphia divisions which will be held next week.

Nautical Experts' Examination.
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The civil service commission will hold an examination on the 21st inst. to fill two vacancies in the position of nautical expert one at Cleveland, O., and the other at Chicago, Ill. The subjects of the examination will be letter writing, trigonometry, physical geography, mathematical definitions and navigation. Persons desiring to compete should write the civil service commission for application blanks. Residents of the District of Columbia will not be admitted. Examinations may be held in cities outside of Washington if applications are filed at once.

Even Alaska is Not Exempt.
 PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 13.—News has been received from Sitka, Alaska, that Adolphus Meyer, deputy collector of the port, has arrested a number of public funds amounting to $2,000. When Marshal Porter retired from office he entrusted Meyer to close up his accounts, and when making final settlement with the government a shortage was discovered. Meyer gave bond for appearance for trial in the district court.

Foreigners Can Not Own Mines.
 YUMA, Ariz., Oct. 13.—The famous Pi Cacho placer mine, located about a year ago by non-resident English financiers and held by a syndicate, has all been relocated by parties backed by Montana mining capitalists upon the ground that the mines are owned by aliens in contravention of United States mining laws. The English company will not be allowed to work the mines until the case is decided by the courts.

Candles and Powder Mts.
 TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 13.—The steamer Chilat has arrived from Alaska, bringing news of the explosion of a big dynamite magazine, containing forty miles from Juneau, on September 28. Manager James Avery sustained a dangerous cut on the head, and great rocks were thrown in the midst of the workmen, but none of them were injured. Throwing out powder with candles caused the explosion.

A Banked Ballot in Illinois.
 SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 13.—The official ballot to be voted November 6 will be the bulkiest ever known in Illinois. It will contain ten tickets, viz: Democratic, republican, populist, independent republican, independent democrat, independent people's, people's silver, party, independent party, people's party.

First M. E. Church in America.
 BALTIMORE, Oct. 13.—A special train containing many Methodists left Friday morning to visit the site of the old Strayhorn mine, in negotiating for the lease of the well-known Davis farm in South Sherborn. He will establish a sanatorium.

Condensed Murderer Ill.
 COLLEGEVILLE, Pa., Oct. 13.—Judge Edwards, the Hocking county murderer confined in the penitentiary under sentence of death, is quite ill. The circuit judge refuses to interfere, and he must hang.

DID NOT RAISE THE RENT.

A Woman Who Was Too Smart For Her Landlord.

Chicago Tribune.
They met in a street car and the woman with the golf cap remarked:
"I see you still have the same house."
"Yes, and at the same rent," remarked the woman with the ostrich bag.
"But I thought your landlord had decided to raise it?"
"He did, but somehow I didn't expect to move, though Tom gave up the house at once. You see, I really can't afford to have any more bric-a-brac smashed in moving wagons. I lost enough already to stock a department store."
"So you decided not to move?"
"Not quite, dear. You see, I told the landlord that I was sorry to move, but that I really couldn't afford a higher rent and so I myself would gladly show the house to intending tenants. Thus I set every room in order and waited."
"Well?"
"Well, I really thought the first man who came would take it. I pruned the closets and told her what swell neighbors we had, and—"
"But I thought you didn't want to?"
"No, dear. But just as she was leaving I casually mentioned the fact that two persons had died of typhoid fever in the next house above and one two doors below. She seemed somewhat agitated, and when I called the landlord's address after her she didn't seem much interested."
"But, Maggie, you know that was—"
"Some time ago. Yes, but I never could remember dates and the people did die."
"Well, did she?"
"Never went near. The bedrooms were too small for the next people, and the next ones were delighted, but thought the rent rather dear. Thus I remarked that I immediately after lunch I intended to run around and engage that lovely little house in the next square at a lower rent. They carelessly asked which house, and I noticed that they turned that corner."
"How could you?"
"Well, you know, it was cheaper, and if they had taken our house I should have been obliged to rent that, for it was near enough to have my bric-a-brac carried."
"Your landlord told me that the Swell-styles intended to take it."
"They did; but after Mrs. Swell-styles and I had gone all over it, I said: 'I think the house will just suit you, but mine, you know, are rather delicate and the least hint of sewer gas alarms us.' She turned pale, and I knew at once that not even the parlor mantel would induce her to take it."
"And the landlord?"

"Oh, he came around that evening and said that we were such good tenants that he had decided not to raise the rent. Tom was so surprised."
"No wonder!" gasped her friend; "this is our stopping place; come and have a cream soda—I feel faint!"

THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN

WEEKLY PUBLIC LEDGER.

Did U?

Did you ever think that relatives or friends who have moved to distant places—some West, perhaps, to grow up with the country—are always glad to hear from their "Old Kentucky Home"? And did it ever occur to you that a single copy of THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN—the weekly edition of THE Public Ledger—contains more home news than you could embrace in a hundred ordinary letters? And did it ever strike you that you can send the paper to your relatives and friends for a whole year at less cost than you can write a letter every week? Besides, don't you think a year's subscription to THE REPUBLICAN would be a present highly appreciated by those at a distance? Suppose you try it and hear what they have to say on the subject.
